Mtumba Primary School has now a total of 579 registered pupils. The average of pupils attendance is 515.

Some pupils play truant temporarily and some of them leave the school before they complete standard seven. Therefore there are temporary absentees and the permanent absentees.

Some reasons for playing truant among the pupils are:

1. The boys go to towns to work as cowboys.
2. The girls go to towns to work as housegirls
3. Some boys go to towns to do pet business
4. Some girls are being pregnant so they being expelled

In the past few years there have been some improvement in the per cent of those who complete among ^{those} who being ~~not~~ registered at first. ^{Some years ago} At first it was 50%-60% Now years it is 80%-90% complete school among those who were admitted standard one.
